Dear Parents/Carers

It has been an interesting week! We have all had to adapt to a different way of life and doing things. Thank you for supporting us. I hope this letter finds you all safe and well.

For those of you home schooling, we are not setting work over Easter and the work that was set originally should last up until the end of term, next Wednesday. We will be uploading some general activities that you might want to do with your children and putting them on the website on Monday.

We have set up a new way of making contact with both parents and children. All of you have had logins for class DOJO and there are logins for children to. This will allow parents and children to communicate safely with teachers. Please can all parents who have not logged on do so. Please contact the school office by email office@middlefield.cambs.sch.uk if you are having issues logging on.

Have a lovely weekend.

Best wishes

Mrs Beale and all Middlefield staff
Interim Headteacher
